

Laura Ana Maria Iosifescu

Dear Friends,

After graduating this summer from Fine Art BA course I took a break for a month and went to see my family in Romania. It was really emotional but now I've returned fresh and ready again to face my destiny in this competitive art world.

In June I took part in STANDPOINT EXHIBITION at the Art Quest Gallery in Isle of Wight and couple days ago I went to collect my art work from there.

In the next few months you will be able to also see my work in four different exhibitions .More information on all of these below.
